

RESUME: CONSULTING SKILLS

SKILLS

Skills sought within your field.	Examples of how this skill can be demonstrated on a resume.
Problem Solving - Analytics	Education • High GPA in a science, mathematics, engineering major in undergrad degree • Wrote a senior thesis analyzing effects of industrialization on native species in Alaska • High standardized test scores: (GMAT, GRE, national/international exams) Experience • Analyzed shareholder ownership patterns, resulting in the creation of strategic investor targets designed to broaden ownership of Lehman Brothers' stock. • Designed a model for companies to assess their net carbon footprint by analyzing global carbon emissions standards and trading protocols; gauged feasibility of creating carbon reporting software for businesses and presented findings to CEO. • Analyzed competitive landscape and created winning sales strategies for multi-million dollar software deals against SAP, Oracle, Google and IBM; achieved a 75% win rate on approximately 130 deals pitched. • Analyzed price and component engineering designs to set strategic sourcing actions; spearheaded over $250K of savings (18% of annual commodity spend) by design-to-cost and inventory initiatives. Additional • Awarded first place in National Mathematics Olympiad
- Strategic thinking	Experience • Formulated and implemented a strategy for dealer facilitated online car sales for corporate buyers of Ford Motor Company resulting in $18M in first year savings. • Developed short-term strategic plan and managed cross-functional executive team through the implementation phase, successfully avoiding bankruptcy and returning company to profitability. • Transformed company into retail-only operation by divesting 100% of company's manufacturing operation, improving operating margins and overall business risk. • Collaborated directly with the CEO, CFO, CAO, and other members of senior management on the creation of and preparation for dozens of investor presentations, resulting in clearer communication of Lehman Brothers' economic outlook, industry positioning, and valuation. • Re-engineered support operations by product specialization to decrease average minutes per support incident by 40%. • Improved operational readiness rate by 20% in six months and eliminated network outages 30% by creating and implementing a maintenance monitoring and training program.

Skills sought within your field.	Examples of how this skill can be demonstrated on a resume.
- Action oriented	Experience • Initiated simple ‘vanilla’ derivatives business in conjunction with a team in Australia. Designed and tested risk management systems required for new business area. Supported sales P+L of $5M. • Created “New Product Council” of senior management to set strategies and resolve obstacles in new product development. Successfully launched 9 new products in 1 year. • Conducted three studies of top performing companies and investor relations best practices through interviews, research and surveys; these studies generated multiple new disclosure recommendations for senior management. • Effected change on future product roadmaps and software licensing models by influencing product managers in Redmond to incorporate feedback and key observations from win/loss reviews of sales engagements in Asia.
- Structured	Experience • Conducted extensive market research to identify target customers and initiated commercial relationships. Secured Compaq Singapore as the company’s first major client resulting in $250K revenues. • Directed step by step analysis of a corporate client’s takeover protections in light of recent hostile takeover threats. • Spearheaded due diligence for the purchase of pension fund by Israeli-European investors; analyzed fund’s operational history and uncovered suspect managerial practices that convinced client to avoid $480M transaction. • Led long-term strategy implementation aimed at focusing on key strengths (design, service, and brand). • Oversaw deployment of platoon in 48 hours instead of six week unit standard, resulting in 100% of equipment and personnel exceeding all requirements.

Skills sought within your field.	Examples of how this skill can be demonstrated on a resume.
Communication - Influencing people and outcomes	Experience • Recommended $50 million in new venture investments to senior management that increased profitability by 10% and market share by 12%. • Developed relationships between London, NY and Tokyo traders to manage the bank's risk globally and improve product offering available to European clients. • Secured new client worth $6M; managed ongoing relationship and pitched trading system solutions to potential clients. • Convinced Brigadier General of need to established new operational unit of 15 specialists; led new unit to triple total department output within 3 months of launch; awarded Certificate of Excellence for achievement. • Formulated and implemented new pricing processes in large manufacturing firm to account for fluctuations in capacity utilization and cost-to-serve across wide range of clients. • Addressed and resolved concerns relating to the firm's strategy and financial condition through communicating with dozens of institutional shareholders and internal teams and providing a consistent message regarding the firm's performance • .Liaised with licensing teams to provide clients with value-oriented offerings; resulted in additional revenues of $150M. • Established strong partnership with Microsoft Australia; resulted in being referred to three new clients within two months and generating $150K in revenues from IT service contracts.
- Written and oral communication	Education • Wrote/presented thesis paper on... • Published/Authored/Presented articles, opinion pieces, reports, etc. Experience • Communicated with 20+ limited partners on behalf of $1B private equity fund. Reported the fulfillment of these obligations to the fund 1 week prior to the date originally requested by the fund. • Facilitated 20 strategy planning sessions for over 150 senior military officials that resulted in new U.S. counterterrorism policies • Examined business financials and assisted the CEO in running monthly business performance reviews for all 10 regional centers across five divisions; presented business outlook to investors and board members. Additional • Conducted research on and created a model for the deployment of regional jets which was subsequently published in the Journal of Air Transport Management. • Presented at industry or academic conferences

Skills sought within your field.	Examples of how this skill can be demonstrated on a resume.
- Negotiating Interests	Experience • Negotiated timelines for 20 limited partners on behalf of $1B private equity fund and oversaw the fulfillment of their monetary and documentary obligations to the fund. • Negotiated and closed technology-commercialization transactions which generated over $18M for Ben-Gurion University, including VC investments, incubator R&D projects and world-wide technology licenses. • Negotiated with CIOs and technical decision makers of over 20 Fortune 500 companies to deploy their solutions on Microsoft technologies; resulted in deals worth $10M (10% of Microsoft Singapore's annual revenue).
Leadership & Teamwork
- Leadership Experience	Education • Served as Treasurer on the executive board for the Student Leadership Council. • Leadership positions at Chicago Booth Experience • Led a 10 person cross-functional team to redesign sales forecasting process resulting in 30% reduction in finished goods inventory. • Managed team of four individuals in due diligence effort related to a $340M stock offering. – Spearheaded the review of more than 3K internal documents produced by the company. – Coordinated with partners and the client's General Counsel to successfully complete the review ahead of schedule. • Managed a 5-member cross-cultural team to establish Bayer-Schering as an independent entity in Israel; negotiated $15M settlement agreement with previous distributor and structured new 50-person marketing operation. • Led team of five in assessing viability of pricing structure of a blockbuster medical product leading to new tactics to fend off lower priced competitors and increase market share. • Trained and directed a team that analyzed macro/micro capital markets trends and the firm's competitive stance; results from these analyses were utilized by senior management and institutional investors. Additional • Led Habitat for Humanity volunteer teams on projects in Romania and Thailand; raised $18K to construct homes and provide trauma counseling to victims of the 2004 Asian tsunami.

Skills sought within your field.	Examples of how this skill can be demonstrated on a resume.
- Respected by others as a leader	Education • Elected cohort Career/ Communications Chair; coordinated career activities for 55 peers • Student Graduation Speaker – 2001 Babson College Commencement Ceremony Experience • Appointed by senior management to the European Diversity Committee. Collaborated to organize the London office ‘Day of Difference’ to promote and encourage staff diversity. • Selected to represent 4K Asia employees at global HR task force meetings; collaborated with key stakeholders to create an online career development and performance tracking tool used by over 80K employees.
- Natural leadership (i.e. being able to lead without having a role)	Experience • Created composite derivatives products that were applicable to smaller clients, with the aim of expanding the bank’s customer base in the UK. Advised a team of five to produce business plans, legal documentation and marketing material for these new to bank products. • Revitalized the Supplier Scorecard Program to analyze quality, delivery, and engagement metrics for every supplier, resulting in a 30% increase in supplier participation. • Coordinated scheduling for a project with international and cross-functional teams; facilitated open dialogue and consensus-building meetings that cut project delivery time by 20%
- Impact: having quantifiable impact in the roles that you have had	Experience • Methodically studied the interest rate market and took calculated positions to achieve a $3MM P&L. • Analyzed pricing, distribution and promotion processes to set strategic marketing actions; yielded 11% growth in sales • Analyzed operations and defined strategic focus and objectives for Basel II project, which reduced capital usage of trading by 40%. • Reorganized manufacturing staff and processes, increased workforce, and established new operational goals, resulting in a 45% increase in manufacturing output and 30% decrease in production times.
- Ability to work in a team regardless of formal position	Experience • Worked on a team 4 consultants to optimize shipping operations and transform ports for an oil and gas company; resulted in 20% reduction in logistics costs • Collaborated on a sales team that secured Compaq as company’s first major client, and generated revenues of over $10 MM

ATTRIBUTES

Attributes sought within your field.	Examples of how this attribute can be demonstrated on a resume.
Creativity - Out of the box but practical thinking	Education/ Additional • Created the business plan for a telecommunications portal valued at $10M; presented it to VCs at the Anderson School of Management resulting in an invitation to participate in the Anderson business plan contest Experience • Completed a comprehensive report for the client's Chief Executive Officer recommending six separate defense measures that could be adopted by the company. • Initiated and developed three month-long wine expertise training for staff, increasing wine sales by 20%. • Constructed a valuation model for the S&P 500 and used it to create several cross-sector studies, aiding investors in marketplace analysis. • Assessed client's needs and designed a new pre-configured system catered to different customer segments, which reduced customer implementation time by 30%. • Conceptualized and implemented a customized pricing model for a new outdoor advertising product; increased sales by 20% Additional • Promoted and marketed unique events such as "Whisky and Champagne Speed Dating" for the Salt Bar in London.

Attributes sought within your field.	Examples of how this attribute can be demonstrated on a resume.
Track Record of Success
- In school & outside	Education • GMAT: 750 (99%). Awarded Chicago Booth merit based scholarship • GPA 3.7/4.0. Ranked in top 0.5% of over 150K students on IIT entrance examination • Selected to represent Chicago Booth at Booz & Company's CEO Challenge • Chicago Global Citizens: Selected into a team of four students to develop carbon credit sales strategy and viable business model for Millennium Villages, to help poor households in Ghana profit from a scalable, sustainable palm oil enterprise. • Organized Eurotrek 2008 for 25 students; Co-organizer of Media Entertainment & Technology Conference 2009 Additional • Raised $70K by co-founding charitable group, which arranges annual program to train teachers on ESL methods in tsunami affected schools in Arugam Bay, Sri Lanka. • Provided pro-bono legal aid in over 100 cases in poverty-stricken mixed Jewish-Arab neighborhoods of Jaffa. • Led a team of four students that conceptualized and implemented the world's first wireless, "smart" shopping cart that eliminated queuing at supermarket check-outs; presented solution to Steve Jobs and an audience of 18K. • Awarded 1st place at the 2003 Microsoft Asia Student .NET Competition in Beijing, China, 3rd place in the world at the 2003 Microsoft Imagine Cup in Barcelona, Spain, and $60K from Microsoft, Cisco, HP and NTU. • Elected President of NTU Debating Society; organized Singapore's largest annual debating tournament in 2002.
- At workplace (i.e. promotions, etc)	Experience • Promoted to Senior Analyst role within first six months of joining the firm. • Earned the President's Corporate Citizenship Award for leadership in and philanthropic dedication to employee programs.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Areas of expertise sought within your field.	Examples of how this expertise can be demonstrated on a resume.
Quantitative / Comfort with numbers	Education • Master of Science, Mathematics; GPA 3.85/4.0 • Thesis on... Experience

	• Priced exotic cross-asset class derivatives for institutional clients in Taiwan, South Africa and the UK. • Analyzed financial statements of companies and current news to create equity market research reports. Additional • UK competitor at 1995 and 1996 International Competition for University Students in Mathematics.
Mentorship skills	Experience • Mentored and inducted five new employees over two years; ensured mentee success through frequent coaching and training sessions. • Worked with the Director of London office to internally recruit consultants; grew office from 3 to 25 consultants; managed and mentored 3 new consultants, performing semi-annual appraisals. • Selected to train 30 cadets in Unit's six month-long training course; formulated and coordinated 85-hour per week study schedule; number of cadets that went on to become department commanders twice Unit average. • Mentored personnel, resulting in 80% of staff being promoted to higher rank, 25% higher than company standard. • Served as "Big Brother Mentor" for 3 underprivileged youth in New York City Additional • Managed and restructured the NY Governor's Committee on Scholastic Achievement Mentoring Program, leading to the development of more than 50 employee/high school mentorships.